STAFF MEMORANDUM NO. 267

SUBJECT: Revision of NIE-47

1. Clarification is needed concerning the reworking of NIE-47, Communist Capabilities and Intentions in Asia through 1954.

2. The Problem:

25X1X7

Recommendation: That the Staff be instructed to rework NIE-47 as a parallel estimate to the published [redacted] paper. 25X1X7

b. What time span is required? The 18 September 1951 cable

25X1X7

The present 1954 time span on NIE-47 appears to be considerably beyond the scope of the agency contributions.

Recommendation: That the 1954 time span be dropped and that the Staff be instructed either to follow [redacted] example of 25X1X7 no time limitation or to adopt a "through mid-1953" span.

c. What assumptions should be made for this estimate? The

25X1X7

25X1X7

Board discussion of NIE-47 on 5 September seemed to reveal a need for some such assumption underlying the estimate, as well as an assumption concerning US policy in Asia.

Recommendation: That the assumptions adopted for this paper read as follows:

"Assumptions:

1. General war has not broken out between the US and the USSR.

2. No fundamental change has occurred in the policies toward Asia of the US and its Allies."

3. Treatment

25X1X7

a. How detailed ought this paper to be? [REDACTED] consists of 6 paragraphs of conclusions and 229 paragraphs of discussion. The 23 July 1952 draft of NIE-47 consists of 5 paragraphs of conclusions, 39 paragraphs of discussion, and the Annexes.

Recommendation: That the discussion in the 23 July 1952 draft of NIE-47 be reduced to 1/3 or 1/2 of its present length and that present annexes A and B be retained substantially unchanged.
